

Geography - Autumn 1 – Rivers

Year 5

Key vocabulary

glacier	an extremely large mass of ice which moves very slowly, often down a mountain valley tributary	a stream or river that flows into a larger one monsoon	wet and dry seasons caused by a change of wind direction irrigation	water spread around areas of land, usually to make crops grow course	the channel which a river flows along source	where a river begins erosion	water moves soil or rock downhill, away from its location meander	a large bend or curve in a river river	large, natural stream of water towards another body of water estuary	the part of the river that flows into the sea delta	many water channels around islands of land

The Nile Delta (stretches along 240km)

A dam used to capture and store water

The River Indus (32,000km long)

