

Relative Pronouns

who, whose and which

A Copy and complete these sentences with who, whose or which.
These words link people or things already mentioned. Who and whose refer to people. Which refers to things.

1. The boy _____ won the race is called Simon.
2. That is the book _____ I left on the bus.
3. This is the man _____ rescued my daughter.
4. The letter _____ I sent last week has only just arrived.
5. The lady _____ keys we found gave us a reward.
6. The pen _____ you lent me is similar to my father's.
7. The man _____ kitten you found is very pleased.
8. He bought a watch _____ was very expensive.

Relative Pronouns

who, whose and which

A Copy and complete these sentences with who, whose or which.
These words link people or things already mentioned. Who and whose refer to people. Which refers to things.

1. The boy _____ won the race is called Simon.
2. That is the book _____ I left on the bus.
3. This is the man _____ rescued my daughter.
4. The letter _____ I sent last week has only just arrived.
5. The lady _____ keys we found gave us a reward.
6. The pen _____ you lent me is similar to my father's.
7. The man _____ kitten you found is very pleased.
8. He bought a watch _____ was very expensive.